Registration of 192 Men from Local Area Held

Enlistments, Defense Work Cut Down Expected Antioch Total

One hundred and ninety-two men registered for selective service Monday in the Antioch district. Registrations were held at Antioch Grade school. It had been expected that the registration from this area would be considerably larger. However, many of the younger men from this area have enlisted.

A large number of older men, and many of the younger men who have not as yet been called up for selective service, have been employed elsewhere on defense work, and arrangements had been made to register them at stated places close to their work.

These factors are believed to have cut down the total of the local registration to about a third of what had been expected.

A committee of 30, working in three shifts of 10 persons each, assisted John Horan, adjutant of the Antioch American Legion post, in conducting the registrations.

At the time of his death, he was employed at the Avery shop in Lake Villa.

He is survived by his daughters, Mrs. Frank Patrick, Waukegan; Mrs. William Roble, Oshkosh; and Mrs. Ray Resheske, North Chicago, and by two grandchildren.

Also surviving are his brothers, Joe, of Athens, Wis.; Frank, of Oshkosh; and John, of Waukegan, Wis.; his sisters, Mrs. Celia Berndorfer, Mrs. Lena Farley, both of Oshkosh; Miss Martha Sebor of Junction City; Mrs. Veronica Rose, Stevens Point, Wis.; and Mrs. Mary Nordmann, Milwaukee.

In addition to names previously announced, donors to the recent Red Cross emergency war relief campaign in the Antioch district included: W. C. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Swanson.

Purchase of New Fire Engine to be Considered

The proposed purchase of a new fire engine and the revision of village ordinances applying to the fire department are among the matters expected to be discussed at a special meeting of the Antioch village board Friday evening.

The purchase of a new engine has been advocated by the fire department and it is expected that this suggestion will receive serious consideration from the village council.

Village Attorney George McGaughey will be present to advise on the changes in fire department ordinances.

Paddock Opposes Congress Pensions

Congressman from Tenth District Issues Statement

George A. Paddock, congressman at Washington, D. C., from the Tenth Illinois district, has expressed himself publicly as opposed to congressional pensions, in an open statement to the ANTIOCH NEWS.

Paddock, whose home is in Evanston, forwards the following pledge from Washington:

"I believe that my one great obligation is to help win the war.

"I shall vote for any measure that aids success, and against every measure that delays victory. I am against all expenditures not directly contributing to that victory, including Congressional pensions, which I opposed and shall vote to repeal. If this pension is not repealed, I shall refuse to accept it.

"I oppose giving Government positions to members of the Communist party, or any other organized group hostile to our form of government.

"To our soldiers and sailors I pledge that I will do my utmost to see that our American way of life, for which they are tendering the supreme sacrifice, is maintained for them and their families; that we will protect at home the institutions, social and political, which they are defending.

"These American soldiers and sailors must fight under American officers in American organizations, and not as replacements in the forces of any other nation.

"When victory comes, the peace must be worthy of the sacrifices this nation has made, and must protect the safety and the national destiny of the United States."

CATHOLIC SOCIETY SPONSORS MOVIE-- "THE ETERNAL GIFT"

Famed Attraction Will Be Shown at Lakes Theater, Wed., & Thurs.

"The Eternal Gift," famed sound movie of Catholic Solemn Mass, will be shown at the Lakes Theatre next Wednesday and Thursday, Feb. 25-26, under the sponsorship of the Altar and Rosary society of St. Peter's church, Antioch.

A presentation of the Servite Fathers, the feature picture was produced under the supervision of the Perpetual Novena in Honor of Our Sorrowful Mother. It is the first and only sound-motion picture of the Solemn Catholic Mass ever made and is pronounced to be divinely inspirational.

The cast includes 35 leading members of the Chicago Symphony orchestra, 125 Cathedral choristers, 50 Gregorian Chanters and 1,500 "extras." Critics have evaluated the music in "The Eternal Gift" as unbelievably inspirational. The whole composition has been woven into a lovely tapestry through the basing of the score on an especially happy phrase from the Christmas Mass, resulting in a completely ecstatic musical experience.

Advance sale of tickets for the attraction indicates a large attendance, according to members of the Altar and Rosary society committee in charge.

Father of Lake Villa Woman Dies at Highwood

Funeral services were held in Highwood Park Saturday morning at 9 o'clock for James P. Hickey, 52, of Highwood, father of Mrs. Mary Olson of Lake Villa.

Hickey was born in Missoula, Mont. He was for many years a civilian employee in the quartermaster department at Fort Sheridan.

Survivors include his widow, Victoria; a son, James P. Hickey, Jr., a brother, Patrick, of Little Falls, Minn., and two grandchildren.

LEGISLATORS WILL HAVE OPPOSITION IN APRIL PRIMARIES

Many aspirants for the eighth district's three representative jobs are expected to have their petitions filed before Monday, Feb. 23, the final day for filing.

The posts are now held by Representatives Nick Keller of Zion, Harold D. Kelsey of Barrington, both Lake county Republicans, and Thos. Bolger, Democrat of McHenry county, Lake, McHenry and Boone counties comprise the 8th district.

Opposing Keller and Kelsey for the G. O. P. nominations will be William J. Smith, former Waukegan publisher, Bruno Stanczak of North Chicago, C. Russell Allen, Cary lawyer, and Wm. Miller, mayor of Marengo. Allen was an unsuccessful candidate in 1940.

Representative Bolger will face opposition in the person of Charles F. Hayes, Harvard Democrat. Hayes has campaigned for the nomination several times.

Due to the minority system of electing state legislators, nomination in the primary is regarded as certain election in the November balloting. The Republicans choose two nominees and the Democrats one, with only three to be elected.

Not for over a decade has the district had an entirely G. O. P. representation at Springfield—that was when the Democrats placed two nominees in the race and the Republicans countered with three, electing all three in November. Since that time the Jeffersonians have seen the wisdom of placing only one nominee in the race. Kind of a "Hobson's choice," one might say.

Military Ball Expected to Be Colorful Affair

Legion Invites Army, Navy Men to Dance Here Saturday

The uniforms of Legionnaires and of navy and army men, and the formal gowns and party frocks of the ladies are expected to make Antioch Township High school gymnasium a colorful scene at the Antioch Legion post's second annual Military ball Saturday evening.

A floor show and a grand march will be features, and there will be a brief patriotic program.

Dancing will be from 9 to 1 o'clock, to the music of Ben Pasucci's 12-piece band.

Open to Public. Invitations have been sent to officers of Legion posts, Lake county officials and military and naval men to attend. An invitation is also being extended to the general public.

The Legion auxiliary will have charge of the serving of barbecued beef sandwiches, coffee and other refreshments in the cafeteria.

Mrs. Frank Harden, president, has appointed Mrs. Walter Mills and Mrs. John Horan on the purchasing committee. They will be assisted during the evening by Mrs. Anton Johnson and by the general membership of the auxiliary.

KENNETH HILLS ATTAINS 1st CL. RATING IN NAVY

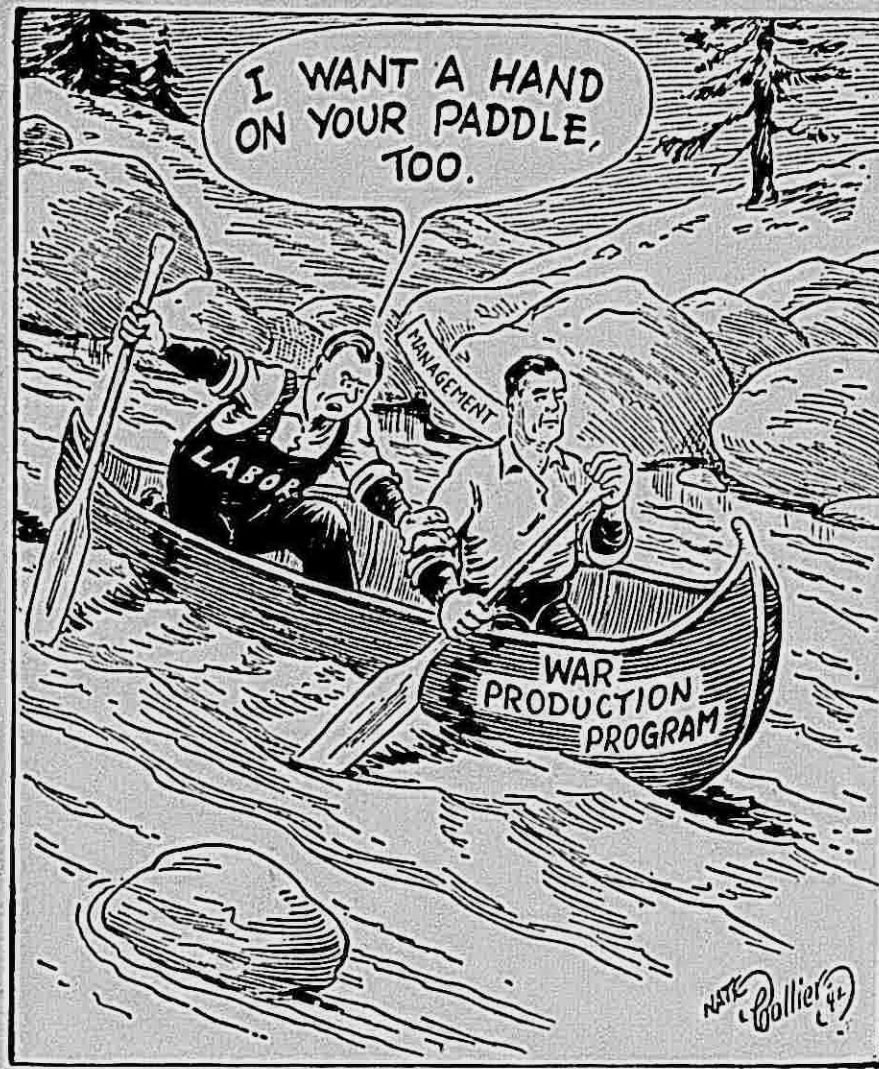

Kenneth C. Hills, U. S. Navy, now stationed with the naval air station at San Juan, Puerto Rico, sends greetings to the News and to all his Antioch friends in a letter received here this week.

Hills has been in the navy for almost six years and is now in his second year of his re-enlistment, having first entered the service in 1936 just after his graduation from the Antioch High school. He served for four years on the aircraft carrier, Saratoga, and later was assigned to naval air patrol duty. He has been in his present location since last July. During his enlistment he has attained a first class rating as a painter. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter K. Hills of Antioch.

Kenneth writes: "It is hard for me to put into words how pleasantly surprised I was upon receiving my first issue of your paper, as well as the knowledge that I will continue to receive it for some time to come.

"It is mighty nice to be able to keep up with the news on the home front, more so because your paper covers so many items of interest. Well over four years has elapsed since I was last home, and 'The Antioch News' is doing its share in bringing back old memories of people and places I used to be so familiar with."

Let's All Pull Our OWN Oar

Farmers to Vote On Marketing Plan

Lake county wheat growers will be called upon to vote for the second time in a wheat marketing quota referendum Saturday, May 2, it is announced by Chester A. Faulkner, chairman of the County AAA committee.

The date has been set by Secretary of Agriculture Claude R. Wickard as the time when wheat growers throughout the nation will vote on whether they want quotas to regulate the marketing of large wheat supplies on a limited market. Last July Secretary Wickard proclaimed the need for continuation of the wheat quota system in 1942.

Further details will be announced by the County AAA office later.

The U. S. now has 79 per cent of the world's gold supply not counting what is in the nation's bridge work. It would have been a lot snarlier if the administration, that pretends to have such keen foresight in international affairs, if said administration had specialized in cornering the tin and rubber supplies of the world instead of gold, which, mechanically speaking, is one of the most worthless of metals.

Accident Sends 8 to Hospital With Injuries

Occupants of Two Cars Are Hurt in Collision on Hwy. 173

Members of the Antioch rescue squad not only gave the eight victims of a two-car automobile accident emergency first aid and transported them to a hospital Saturday evening, but squad members remained to assist the nurses and doctors in moving the patients and preparing them for treatment after their arrival at the hospital.

The accident occurred when an automobile in which Ray Aronson, Millburn Crawford, Elmer Hawkins, Roger Brogan and Jacqueline Miller, all of Antioch, were driving west and another in which Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hattendorf and infant daughter were driving east, collided on Route 173 near the Highway 41 intersection.

Were Homeward Bound. The accident occurred at about 6 p. m., when the five young people in the west-bound car were returning home from work at their jobs in communities along the lake shore.

The Hattendorf baby was the only one who was apparently uninjured. Injuries of varying severity, ranging from cuts and bruises to bad gashes and skull fractures, were received by the seven adults.

Six members and officers of the Antioch rescue squad, Harry Greenlee, Fred Yates, Henry Cuedenfeld, Second Lieut. Walter I. Scott, Captain Herman Holbek and First Lieutenant Herman Rosing, responded to the call.

Three of the accident victims were moved to Victory Memorial hospital in Waukegan in the Antioch rescue truck, three in an ambulance called to the scene, and two of those least injured were transported in Greenlee's automobile.

Mrs. Hattendorf was found to be suffering from a slight skull fracture and the loss of several teeth. Hattendorf received injuries about the head and shoulders.

Elmer Hawkins received a bad gash on the right leg.

Brogan, Miss Miller and Crawford have been released from the hospital. Members of the rescue squad were highly complimented by physicians in attendance, including Dr. A. P. Bratrude of Antioch, on their efficient emergency aid.

Services Held for Lake Villa Woman

Mrs. Catherine Leonard, 71, a resident of Lake Villa for the past 52 years, passed away Friday after an extended illness.

Funeral services were held in the home Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with burial in Angola cemetery.

Catherine McNulty was born in County Mayo, Ireland, the daughter of John and Bridget McNulty, on Dec. 23, 1869.

Her husband, James Leonard, preceded her in death in 1938.

Survivors include five daughters, Mrs. John Miller; Mrs. J. A. Eberly; Mrs. Albert B. Anderson, all of Chicago; Mrs. Fred Hodgkins, Grayslake; and Mrs. Reinbach, Lake Villa; four sons, John of Lake Forest; Anthony of Round Lake; James of Calumet City, Ill.; and Edward T. of Chicago; eleven grandchildren, and one sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Marks of Owasso, Mich.

City Briefs

The wiring of a radio in an automobile owned by Miss Mary Tiffany caught fire Saturday morning. It was extinguished with only slight damage, the Antioch fire department chief, L. R. Van Patten, reported.

Herman Rosing, first lieutenant of the Antioch rescue squad, is instructor of a first aid class of 37 men which will meet at Fox Lake this evening. A class of 52 men and women held its first meeting Tuesday evening at Russell, with Capt. Herman Holbek of the rescue squad in charge. Rosing, Holbek and Harry Greenlee, all of whom are qualified Red Cross lay instructors, are teaching evening classes totaling about 200 persons residing in and near the Antioch area.

The benefit show sponsored by the Antioch Legion Post recently at the Lakes theatre resulted in a sum of $104, which is being turned into the Legion's special fund for the boys in the service of the United States.

Washington "Gravy Bowl?"

A "gravy bowl" draining hundreds of thousands of dollars out of defense production to be used for lining the pockets of smooth go-betweens would constitute sabotage of the most vicious sort. A House Military Affairs subcommittee, on a surge of mounting rumors, has begun an investigation which should be pushed to speedy conclusion.

The subcommittee has been told that a company possessing only an abandoned foundry obtained millions of dollars in defense orders and spiraled into a holding concern with 14 subsidiaries.

In another instance a salesman who entered the machine tool business within the year has boosted a bank account from $1.25 to more than $100,000 without obtaining a single contract or producing a single bullet. Commissions ranging as high as 25 per cent have been described. That these fees come out of the taxpayers' pockets was made clear by Lieut. R. J. Howard of the ordnance section of the War Department, who explained that manufacture in these instances was on a "cost plus" basis.

It is too early to jump at conclusions, but names of men with doubtful records are beginning to weave in and out of testimony. On the books are accounts of parties at Washington hotels and ringside seats at prize fights. The Military Affairs subcommittee will perform a valuable service in bringing the truth to light.

Treasure Islands

When we were children most of us dreamed of hunting buried treasure. Today we can make that dream come true. We can really have our treasure hunts. For in every part of the country men and women are digging for valuable metals, searching in unlikely places, scouring their homes and their yards, remembering things they had forgotten and half-forgotten many years ago.

Today our factories need scrap iron, rubber, waste paper, pieces of copper and other metals. They must have them so that they can produce more steel, more rubber, more weapons.

There's no telling where we'll find the scrap they need. It might be anywhere, for there are treasure islands all around us. Some people have found valuable "junk" tucked away and unremembered in attics, cellars, garages, barns. Employees in one factory even dug up the ground around their plant and uncovered 50 tons of metal in odds and ends that had been thrown away in previous years.

Their action gave someone an idea, and the idea is spreading. Today throughout America people are organizing treasure hunts to search for scrap. Treasure hunting has become a game that all of us can play—and must play—to help America win the war.

Now that we are getting a chemical engine, it behooves our people to extend all the encouragement possible to our volunteer fire department. Chief Billett is very enthusiastic in his desire to give our city the best protection he can in case of fire. It has been suggested that the department have weekly or monthly meetings, and a practice run at stated times. The department needs considerable equipment and THE NEWS suggests that a benefit entertainment be given the Antioch Fire Department at an early date to enable the boys to secure such articles as are needed. Antioch needs fire protection and should encourage its volunteer company.

Miss Susan B. Anthony, in an article in Collier's Weekly on the achievements of women, says, "The progress in education is so marked and so well understood as to need but little comment. Miss Anthony says that there are now 3,500,000 women wage earners in this country, and that the occupations in which they engage are with a few exceptions the occupations of men. She says: 'The laws, taken as a whole, are by no means exactly just to women, but there is a steady tendency toward justice and practically no retrogression.'

JESUS APPOINTS AND TEACHES THE TWELVE

LESSON TEXT—Luke 6:12-26.
GOLDEN TEXT—Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.—Matthew 5:16

God is sovereign and has all power. He might, therefore, perform His works without the help of man, and on many an occasion He does just that.

That fact makes it all the more glorious that He ordinarily works through men, giving to them the privilege of companionship with Him in service. Sinful and weak though they may have been, they become strong and holy in Him, able to do valiant service in His name.

I. Appointed to Serve Christ (vv. 12-19).

It is the constant teaching of Scripture that those called to serve God are not self-appointed. They are

1. Chosen by Him (vv. 12, 13). He chooses whom He will, gives them the gifts and the grace for ministry (and both are important!), and provides them a place of service. It is vital to the servant of Christ that he know that he has been chosen and called of the Lord. Only with that assurance can he meet the problems and bear the burdens of the work.

Observe that it was after a night of prayer that Jesus appointed the twelve. How many churches give that much prayer to the choosing of its leaders? Do we not need it far more than did our Lord?

2. Called from Many Walks of Life (vv. 14-16). The apostles were men of widely differing gifts, temperaments, and personal characteristics. Some had unusual ability, others apparently were of ordinary qualifications. They were of many occupations, fishermen, a tax gatherer, etc.; but not one was by profession a preacher or priest.

Were men to choose for such offices they would look within the narrow limits of a few learned professions, with certain nationalities preferred, and with position in life an important factor. God cuts across every man-made limitation and calls His workers as He sees fit.

3. Companions in Service (vv. 17-19). At once the twelve received their introduction to service to the great multitude diseased, demon possessed, in spiritual need. It was Jesus who healed them (and notice that "he healed them all," v. 19), but verse 17 tells us that the newly appointed apostles came and stood with Him. They had fellowship with the healing and serving Christ, just as we may have it in service for Him today.

II. Prepared to Live for Christ (vv. 20-26).

Service for Christ is as much (perhaps we should say, more) by life as by ministry. The twelve needed instruction that their spiritual perspective might be right. He tells them

1. How to Meet Difficulties (vv. 20-23). Poverty, hunger, weeping, being hated for Christ's sake, these were the things that Jesus knew His servants might expect, so He prepared them. They were told that these things need not disturb them, for there is a kingdom coming; there will be a time when every hunger will be satisfied, when weeping shall turn to laughter.

Hatred for Christ's sake is declared to be the occasion for an outburst of joy because of the reward which awaits in heaven. Scripture speaks much of rewards, and we do well to encourage ourselves and other Christians by the blessed prospect.

Meeting difficulties is a matter of having mental and spiritual eyes rightly focused. If we do, we can see right through them and see that on the other side there is blessing.

But there are temptations in another direction, so He tells them

2. How to Avoid Dangers (vv. 24-26). Jesus is here speaking of those who, lacking true spiritual vision, revel in the satisfaction of worldly things without a thought of God. The passage, however, may well be applied to the worker for Christ. Often he will be tempted to covet the wealth, the prosperity, the pleasures, and popularity of those round about him.

The question which comes to him is, Why should I and my family not share these pleasant things? Therein lies a temptation to become worldly-minded, centered in the temporalities of life. Let him learn that money in itself cannot bring lasting joy; that the fullness of this world is soon exchanged for an eternal emptiness; that the shallow laughter of this world's fun rapidly gives way to weeping.

The praise of men—popularity with those who know not Christ—is a fickle thing. One day they will praise a man to the skies, and the next day no evil word or disgraceful treatment is spared to destroy and dishearten him.

Texas 'Guerrillas' Ready for Defense

Sheriffs Form Group of Men To Stop Landings.

BEAUMONT, TEXAS.—This corner of Texas is a far piece from the famed cow country in the Panhandle but a lot of men down here know how to handle their six-guns.

For that reason 300 of them are organizing a guerrilla band, equipped for home defense duties if need arises.

Old heads are taking charge. Sheriffs of five southeast Texas counties and cattlemen who know the value of fast, straight shooting are the leaders, banding their men for night patrols and action on the Gulf coast.

There will be a horse cavalry unit, made up of Texans who are more at home in the saddle than in a car.

The "guerrillas," as they call themselves, are rated men who "know how to shoot and how to fight." They believe they are the first such group to organize for home defense in the nation.

The five sheriffs are W. W. Richardson of Jefferson county, Pat Lowe of Liberty, Miles Jordan of Hardin, Sam Scherer of Chambers and Dick Stanfield of Orange, who was once a Texas Ranger. Dan Hines of Orange, another member, is a cattleman who formerly rode with the Rangers.

Each sheriff has named five captains, each an expert with a shooting iron.

The guerrillas say they are ready to help repel any landing party on the coast. They will help guard industrial areas in their counties.

In Spanish guerrilla means "little war." The southeast Texas guerrillas promise to be ready for just that.

Speed Traps Are Used to Curb Traffic Violators

CHICAGO.—The speed trap system—with all of its good points and none of the bad—is being used in four middle western cities to curb speed law violators, according to the American Municipal association.

Known officially as the speed-check zone system, the new method is being used in Minneapolis, Fort Wayne, Cincinnati and Kansas City, whose police department developed it. The system was installed in Minneapolis and Fort Wayne in the last few months.

Five hundred speed-check zones are located throughout Minneapolis. The zones were widely publicized before being set up and zone markings are clearly visible to motorists.

Each zone is marked by bright yellow bars painted on the roadway 176 feet apart. (The bars are spaced 110 feet apart in Kansas City and Fort Wayne, and 113 feet apart in Cincinnati, but the check method is the same in all cities.)

As motorists cross the first line, a police officer equipped with stop watch and various tables notes the time it takes for cars to travel through the zone.

The check is facilitated by mirrors set at each end of the zone.

Grateful Tentmates Hail Private as an Inventor

CAMP BOWIE, TEXAS.—Private Gerald Sorrells of Waco is a good soldier, but if he wasn't an inventor in civilian life, he missed his calling. At least his grateful tentmates are inclined to think so.

A member of headquarters company, Thirty-sixth division, Sorrells decided there wasn't any sense in scampering around on a cold floor these chilly mornings. He devised a means of lighting a stove in the cold early hours and thereby eliminated the necessity of even getting out from under the cozy, comfort of warm army blankets.

He attached a strong cord to the jet of the stove and ran it across the floor of his tent and under the covers of his bed. Awakening a few minutes before the first bugle blast sounds, he simply gives the cord a yank while still in bed. The gas is turned on and the pilot in the stove starts the rest.

Caterpillar Bill Won't Tell Japs What's Ahead

WASHINGTON, N. J.—William ("Caterpillar Bill") Sheats, who annually forecasts the winter weather by the hairiness of caterpillars, declined to make any definite prediction for the coming season. "I'm not going to let those treacherous Japs know what the weather conditions are going to be," said he.

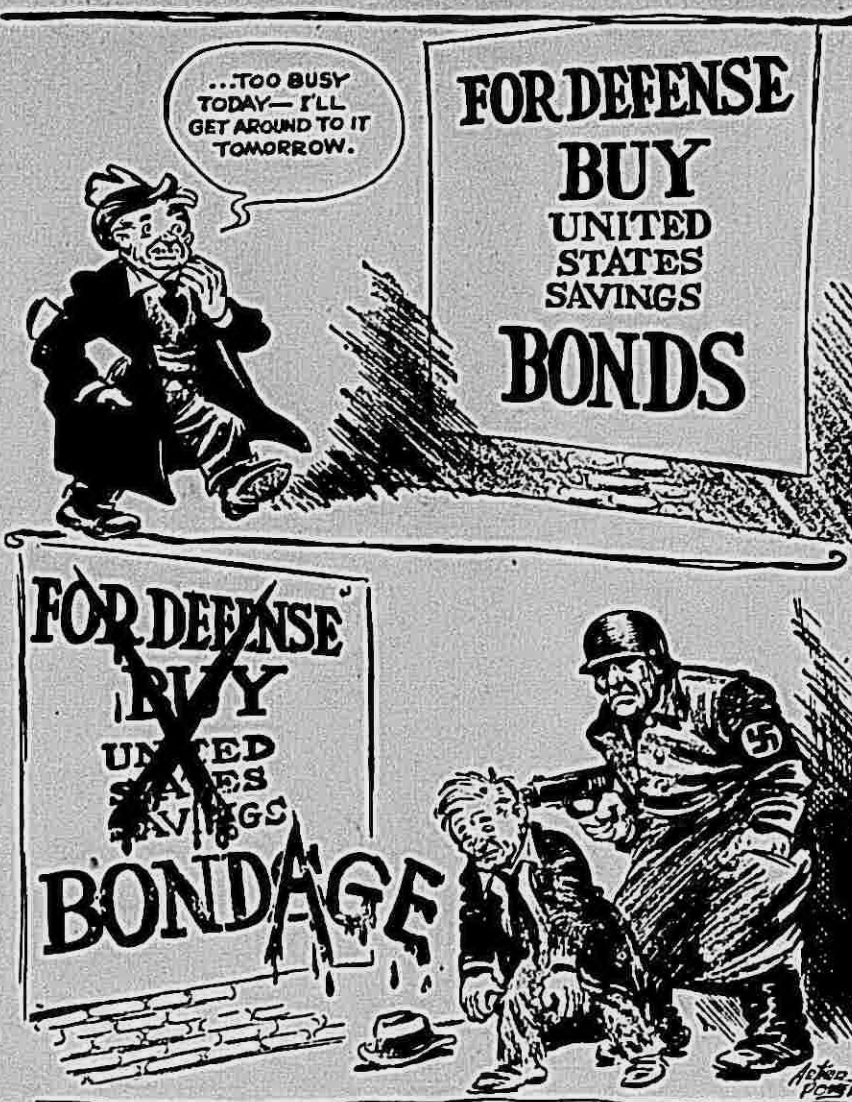

Although many persons say they miss the regular weather forecasts they probably won't mind not knowing how hot it may be this summer.

Eternal Light Is Only Small Pilot Flame Now

GETTYSBURG, PA.—Until the war ends, only a small pilot flame will keep alive this famous battlefield's eternal-light peace memorial.

The main light was extinguished by the national park service as a precaution against air raids—but will burn during daylight hours. The memorial was erected three years ago, on the seventy-fifth anniversary of the battle here.

Women Abandon Club Room Plans for U. S. Defense Bond Purchase

"Does the consumer get what he pays for?" was the question asked by Mrs. Elinor Maffit, Chicago, in a talk given before the Antioch Woman's club at a meeting Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. L. B. Grice.

During the business session preceding the talk, the club voted to invest its savings, amounting to about $500, in U. S. defense bonds, and to postpone plans for having its own clubrooms for the duration of the war.

Mrs. Maffit, who is affiliated with the National Consumers' council, stated that about 40 percent of the people of the United States, including many in the higher as well as the lower income brackets, are not getting a well balanced diet. This, she said, is largely because they do not buy or do not use readily available foods wisely.

She advised housewives that planning menus a week or several days in advance is an aid in achieving food economy as well as balanced meals.

"The most economical way to buy is to buy in quantity," she emphasized, "and to buy in person. If you are doing your purchasing in person and you observe that certain foodstuffs are inferior in quality, you can select other foods of better quality."

Assisting Mrs. Grice on the hostess committee for the afternoon were Misses N. E. Sibley, Herman Rosing and D. N. Deering.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Soul" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, February 15th.

The Golden Text was, "Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, and he will save us: this is the Lord; we have waited for him, we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation" (Isaiah 25: 9).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God" (Ps. 42: 11).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "If the five corporeal senses were the medium through which to understand God, then pulse, blindness, and deafness would place man in a terrible situation, where he would be like those 'having no home, and without God in the world,' but as a matter of fact, these calamities often drive mortals to seek and to find a higher sense of happiness and existence" (p. 486).

Next Sunday, Feb. 22, is Layman's Day in all Methodist churches. The importance, responsibility, task, opportunity, privileges, and other phases of the layman's relation to the church, the state, the world, to society, and to life will be considered by laymen themselves in Methodist churches throughout the nation. A special program, entirely by laymen of this community, will be presented at Antioch Methodist church at the morning service.

The part of the pastor will be that of a sympathetic listener. The following subjects will be discussed from the layman's point of view: "Religion as a Way of Life," "What a Layman Can Do for the Church," "My Idea of the Church and the War," and "Our obligation to the Church in Time of War." No such service has been held in Antioch in recent years. We invite all, regardless of religious affiliation, to join in this, and every other service of the church.

Church School at 9:45 A. M. with classes for all.

Worship at 11:00 A. M., with a warm welcome for all. Spread the news. Invite your friends.

Warren C. Henslee, Pastor.

BROTHERHOOD

"O kind Lord! Thou who art generous and merciful! We are the servants of Thy threshold and we are under the protection of Thy mercy. The Sun of Thy providence is shining upon all and the clouds of Thy mercy shower upon all. Thy gifts encompass all. Thy providence sustains all. Thy protection overshadows all and the glances of Thy favor illumine all. O Lord! grant unto us thine infinite bestowals and let Thy light of guidance shine. Illumine the eyes, make joyous the souls and confer a new spirit upon the hearts."

Various Aspects of School Health Work Discussed for P.T.A.

Thirty-one parents and teachers met at the high school Monday night for the monthly meeting of the high school Parent Teacher association. The theme of the meeting was "The Health Program in the High School."

Dr. R. D. Williams, the first speaker of the evening, spoke of the school physical examination and his work with the school children. Dr. Williams related the history of the city health program for the schools, with respect to immunization of pupils for disease, examination of all students, and check-ups on students who have been absent during illness.

Coach C. A. Wolfenbarger, the next speaker, outlined his work with the boys. He described the varied program offered the boys in his classes for physical development, mentioning in particular the attention paid to cleanliness and the improvement of posture.

Miss Helen Mae Olson, speaking next, on the girls' physical education program, stated that "the physical education program is planned so that every girl should find something in it which gives her an opportunity to play an active and a satisfying part." Miss Olson explained how the work of the gym classes and the Girls' Athletic association is carried on for the high school girls' "physical development, mental stimulus, enjoyment in action, and development of sportsmanship," thus contributing to "education for fitness and also knowledge of the wise use of leisure time."

Miss Orpha White, director of the Lake County Tuberculosis association, was the final speaker. Miss White showed a film, an animated story entitled, "Good-Bye, Mr. Germ." In describing what the association does in the school, Miss White stated that of all students who are given tests, 16 to 18 per cent are positive reactors. A positive reaction does not mean the child has tuberculosis; it shows that the child has at some time come in contact with the tuberculosis germ.

"If a child once reacts positively to a tuberculosis test," advised the speaker, "then he should follow it up with an X-ray from year to year."

"We try to discover tuberculosis before there are any signs . . . There are no signs of early tuberculosis. By the time we get signs, the tuberculosis is in an advancing stage."

"Although the death rate of tuberculosis has been lowered to 7th place for all ages, that disease is still the first cause of death between the ages of 15 and 45."

"No one is rich enough to keep tuberculosis away from his own home. We can have tuberculosis for years without knowing it, but we may give it to someone else."

"Our aim," concluded Miss White, "is to try to prevent the spread of tuberculosis."

In the business meeting preceding the program, the High School P. T. A. voted to join the County Council of Parent Teacher associations.

The meeting was opened with community singing and a vocal solo, "O Let Me Dream," by Myrtle Hardike, with Hans Von Holwede as leader and accompanist.

New Uniforms

In the Spanish-American war it was found that the dark blue uniforms, formerly worn by American soldiers, were too warm for the tropics, so khaki cloth uniforms were introduced.

Wipe Broiling Compartment

The broiling compartment of a stove should be wiped occasionally with a cloth wrung from a suds of mild soap and hot water. Thoroughly drying with a clean dry cloth is important.

Observer----

save for her unique buttons they may find in their attics or in family button bags.

Maybe our opinion on navy and military matters ain't worth so much, but—there might be an idea to be gained from Dunkirk, the ruination of the Normandie and various other unrelated things. And that is, instead of the big troop ships of World War No. 1, which risked the lives of lots of men at one time—how about a bunch of small, fast ships, armed against aircraft and submarines as much as possible, for transferring picked, mobile units in a hurry? Seems to our rather vague, landlubber's mind that such ships could be built or converted in a hurry—and they wouldn't be very big targets or need very big harbors, etc., either . . . and whereas a big troop ship could be maneuvered slowly, thus providing an easy target, a bunch of little boats could sure get around.

It's a pretty hopeful sign to us that Congress is starting in to fight. It isn't the people in this country who have needed waking up, so much as some of the guys who have been saying it was the people who needed waking up. And when folks in this country start getting a little scrappy and edgy, it ain't no sign the country's gonna fall apart. It just means they're really getting down to work.

We see where the Japanese have been using material (and we don't mean materiel, neither) in the Philippines that was sent over by the U. S. quite a few years ago to aid earthquake victims. Could it be that Japan is getting short on material? Already?

We can do without lots of things in this country to win this war. And don't ever make any mistake—we're going to win it. The very fact that Japan had to resort to a foul blow at the start shows how very much afraid the Japanese are that they are going to lose.

The fall of Singapore may be the victory that's going to cost them the war, because now the United States and Australia are kinda likely to quit being so polite to Great Britain about how to run things, and go in to handle matters the way they think they ought to be handled . . . and the heck with anybody's feelings.

Not that the English ain't got courage—but in a gang fight you can't sit around and wait for the other guy. . . And there oughta be some truth behind the legend of American efficiency.

—, we wouldn't even be surprised but what we managed to get some help through to MacArthur. Those Filipinos, are putting up too good a fight to be left out on a limb.

Buy Their Own

Policemen in two-thirds of all American cities are required to buy their own uniforms, revolvers and other kind of personal equipment—even their own bullets in some cities.

Whey From Cheese

Chemists have discovered that the whey left over from cheese making contains blood-coagulating properties and the female hormone, an important ingredient in canned soups and many prepared foods.

Night Marriages Not Legal

Marriages in Great Britain are not legal if they are performed between six o'clock in the evening and eight in the morning.

Hitler Changes U. S. Relations

Americans, Who Fed Post War Reich, Alienated By Nazi Rule.

WASHINGTON. — German-American relations since the last war have been divided into two distinct sections by the advent of the Nazi regime. For more than a decade after the signing of the Versailles peace treaty, Germany and the United States maintained the best of relations, with Americans contributing a great deal of money to try to help the German people back on their feet. The policies and actions of the Hitler government, however, were so repugnant to American ideals that a rapid deterioration of relations set in, culminating eventually in Germany's declaration of war.

After the last war, the United States made no distinction between friend and foe in its humanitarian effort to alleviate suffering in Europe. Its ally, Belgium, its former enemy, Germany, and the still unknown quantity, Soviet Russia, shared equally in a relief program sponsored by Americans. The Quakers set up soup kitchens in Berlin and in other large cities in Germany. The Hoover Food Relief organization came along later to distribute flour, bacon and other essential commodities to the hungry. This program continued for several years after the peace treaty had been signed.

Then Came Hitler.

During the early post-war years, Germans never talked about Americans as they did about their other World war enemies. Even after the Nazi regime came into power, many of them, remembering the friendly American "doughboys" in the Rhine area and the help rendered by American relief organizations, continued to hope that the German government would not involve the United States in the present war.

For much of the decade following the Versailles peace conference, Americans poured money into Germany by buying German securities, not only government bonds, but also those issued by states, municipalities and private concerns. After the French had occupied the Ruhr industrial area and the reparations question came to a head, Prime Minister Baldwin of Great Britain appealed to the United States to investigate Germany's capacity to pay and help settle the problem.

In the meantime, American tourists flocked to Germany and became the favorite foreign visitors in that country. The German merchant marine continued to expand, and many visitors traveled on the crack liners of the North German Lloyd and Hamburg American Lines in preference to American ships. Most Americans felt that the German empire had been forced into the war by its kaiser and that the German people, on the whole, were nice folks who had not wanted war.

But as Adolf Hitler's party slowly came to power, Germany's relations with the United States became worse. The democratic American people could not stomach the anti-Jewish pogroms, the curtailment of all freedom inside Germany.

Treaty Breaking a Factor.

Germany's lack of respect for international treaties also alienated the friendship of the people of the United States.

Although the feeling of the majority of the American people toward Germany was by this time plainly clear, the propaganda organs of the German government continued their efforts to woo adherents to the Nazi scheme of things. Finally this year President Roosevelt ordered the prominent leaders of the propaganda outlets expelled as well as all German consuls. Germany again retaliated by expelling all American consuls in Germany and German-occupied territory. An exchange was effected by sending the expelled Germans to Lisbon on the United States navy transport West Point on July 15, which returned with the expelled Americans.

When Japan attacked the United States, it became evident that a German declaration of war would soon follow.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

By Edward C. Wayne

Navy Reveals Damage to Jap Isles; Senate Again Acts on Price Control; LaGuardia Quits OCD, Landis New Head; Normandie Creates Problem for Navy

(EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper.)
(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

RAID:

On Japs

After two weeks of censorship the Pacific fleet command allowed news men to disclose the amount of damage inflicted by the U. S. navy in their spectacular attack on the Japanese Marshall and Gilbert islands. These reports indicated that with the loss of only 11 U. S. aircraft, plus a minor bomb hit on one cruiser, and with a small loss of life units of the American fleet accomplished the following:

Destroyed four military air bases.
Destroyed two military villages.
Destroyed four radio stations.
Sank at least 16 Jap ships, including a modern cruiser, two submarines and a 17,000-ton liner.
Damaged at least eight other Jap ships.

In addition to an undetermined number destroyed on the ground, the Japs lost 38 aircraft, including fighters and bombers.

Described as almost perfect timing and executed with speed and daring the raid was the first big answer to the often asked question, "Where is the fleet?"

CONSUMERS:

Face Living Costs

It was apparent that the price control bill, which had prevented inflation of certain farm prices, was going to be subject to changes that might bring a big rise in the cost of some items.

The senate agriculture committee had unanimously approved a bill

The amendment had been tacked onto a bill passed which provided $1,000,000 for the purchase of gas masks, auxiliary fire-fighting equipment and other protective goods to be used in the protection of the population against air raids.

The senate had been expected to go along with the house in its effort to weed the "frills and furbelows" out of the program.

JAMES M. LANDIS

Senator Byrd, Virginia, keynoted this move by demanding that the OCD send his committee a list of all OCD employees getting over $3,000 a year, and outlining their specific duties.

LUZON:

163 Planes

Continued efforts by the Japanese to land on Bataan had been turned back by General MacArthur's highly mobile artillery forces in the general's "last ditch" fight to keep the American flag flying over the Philippines.

The anti-aircraft fire of MacArthur's men had continued good, the bag of seven planes in one day comparing favorably with other fronts where the United Nations had many more serviceable aircraft than did the defenders of Luzon.

Captured prisoners and other methods of gaining information revealed that five Japanese divisions had been identified as taking part in the battle, which would bring the estimated strength of the Japs actually on the front battle-line at close to 100,000 men.

Other divisions were on the island, keeping communications open, and it had been reported that reinforcements for the Japs were constantly arriving, thus steadily increasing the pressure on the American-Filipino army.

NORMANDIE:

$80,000,000 Job

Whether carelessness, sabotage or Fate was responsible, the $8,000-ton Normandie, former luxury liner and now the naval auxiliary Lafayette, lay on her enormous beam-ends in 40 feet of water and 12 feet of mud at her dock in New York, an $80,000,000 salvage job for the U. S. navy.

Twenty-two hundred men were at work inside of her, changing her over from peacetime to wartime uses when a welder's torch started a fire. Within minutes it was out of control.

SINGAPORE:

Water-Pincers

A new tactic in warfare, the "water-pincers" movement, utilized by the Japanese in Malaya, had brought Singapore to her knees, spreading gloom in Britain, and making the defense of the East Indies a nearly superhuman job.

General Yamashita, commander of the Jap forces in Malaya, had won the Order of the Golden Kite and the Order of the Rising Sun for his success in driving the defenders out of Malaya, for smashing into the island of Singapore, first time in history that the historic port had been tested in battle.

The long, narrow peninsula of Malaya, difficult terrain, had apparently presented enormous invasion problems. The Japs had solved these by using small boats, many of them commandeered or captured, and sending small, well-armed and highly mobile detachments, first down the east coast, then down the west, making landings by night, and infiltrating behind the defenders.

Each time the British were able to make a swift withdrawal, and to salvage their main forces, but each time they lost ground, until they were finally driven back across the Johore causeway onto the Singapore island.

Literally scores of "bites" had been taken out of each coastline by this Japanese technique during their advance southward. At the same time the Japs had sent another large force to drive westward from the top of the peninsula in an effort to cut off the Burma road, but more important, to protect their own rear.

SPY RAIDS:

On West Coast

TWO BUDDHIST PRIESTS TAKEN
Weren't always praying . . .

More and more Japanese continued to be caught in the nets spread along the West coast by the FBI.

The spy raids were being carried out almost daily by the G-men, who in one raid got 20 alleged spies and saboteurs and a truckload of ammunition and weapons.

Chief concentration of the raids was in Pacific coast counties where there were large military establishments.

At Salinas, Calif., following the questioning of several Japs taken into custody at a large lettuce farm, one of them turned out to be a former chief of police in Tokyo. Another was formerly a high official in the same police force.

A raid on a Buddhist temple in Monterey county yielded three priests. All of them had been in this country only a few months.

In a sporting goods store, about to purchase firearms, a former Japanese bootlegger with a police record was taken into custody.

It was here that a whole truckload of ammunition, rifles, shotguns, etc., was seized, together with the proprietor, a Japanese.

In 45 places searched, the yield was, among other things, 60,845 rounds of ammunition.

TEA:

Panic Buying

A new U. S. agency had been formed to handle the tea situation which developed after grocers were appalled to find customers ordering tea in five-pound lots.

The panic in buying followed similar lines to that in sugar, and which had resulted in the setting up of a sugar rationing plan.

As more or less a natural outcome of the news from the tea-growing areas, WPB began to get reports of "five-pound tea buying" from all sections of the country, and it was regarded as essential that rationing be adopted if the buying panic had not been stopped voluntarily.

In the sugar situation, cases of prosecution began to pop up, one chain store manager, trying to make a sales record for himself, having disposed of 31,000 pounds of sugar, allegedly to illicit still operators. He was fined $500.

DUTCH:

Under Pressure

Complaints from the Netherlands East Indies command that too much of the naval force of the United Nations was engaged in "non-combatant work" came as the Dutch faced a pincers movement against Sourabaya and the fear of a frontal attack on Java generally.

It was evident, said the Dutch leaders, that a giant pincers move was being directed at Java when the Japs landed in force on Celebes island, which formed the tip of the right flank of the Javanese defense line.

At the same time Axis sources had reported that the Japanese were demanding the surrender by the Dutch of all the East Indies, together with their oil supplies, in return for which the islands would be technically left as Dutch possessions.

Dutch sources said, however, that no Japanese proposal would be entertained, and they continued their "scorched earth" policy of destroying all oil installations before abandoning any property to the Japs.

Despite the costly losses inflicted on the enemy in Macassar strait last month, the Japs evidently had been able to make successful landings there.

Chief hope at present of the Dutch in captured territory was the report of successful guerrilla action which had really been the answer to the loss by Japan of any real victory in the war with China. One Dutch authority had said:

"Nowhere do the Japs feel safe. Our men behind their lines are picking them off, too today, ten tomorrow, and the toll is mounting and steady. This guerrilla war is being fought in an incessant downpour of rain."

CLOSER:

Draw Lines of War

Though there was little evidence of a slackening of the general Japanese advance through the island empire of the Southwest Pacific, it seemed that as the days wore on, the main battle lines were drawing closer together.

Arrival in New Zealand of the first units of Admiral Leary's naval forces heralded, according to newsmen who accompanied the fleet, the establishment of a supply line for the United States.

LAKE VILLA

Miss Ethel Brompton, daughter of Thomas Brompton, was married last week to Archie Bausch of the Susanna farms, Lake Villa.

(By Martha Winch)

Packed houses witnessed the annual play tournaments at Antioch High school Wednesday and Thursday evenings, Feb. 11 and 12, and voted for their choice of best actor, actress, and play.

Wednesday night's choice of best actors and actresses was: 1—Billie Maye Runyard; 2—Vivian Cosgrove; 3—Ruth McGlynn. The favorite play on Wednesday night was "A Van Effort," with "Mrs. O'Leary's Cow" second, and "Alone" coming in third.

Thursday night the choice of best actresses gave Sybil Johnson first place, Ella Payne and Catharine Quigley were third. Dave Dupre was proclaimed best actor, Charles Fisher came in second, and Bill Dow was third.

Thursday night the audience chose: 1—"Comin' Round the Mountain"; 2—"She Spied on Lincoln"; 3—"The Farnsworth House."

This year the students were rated by a different system of points, the highest getting 12. Antioch Trounces Grant Bulldogs

(By Dizz and Daff)

On Friday night, Feb. 13, the Antioch basketball squad trounced the Grant Bulldogs 34-22.

The Sequoits started off with a bang, leading at the end of the first period 10-4 on 2 baskets by Buchta, and one each by Fields, Jones and Carpenter. Grant rallied in the second period on two rapid baskets, only to have Barnstable and Buchta of Antioch bag a bucket apiece for Antioch. The half ended with Antioch leading 16-7. During the third quarter, Antioch tallied 9 points on one basket and four free tosses by Dale Barnstable and Buchta. During this period Grant rang up 8 markers on baskets by Vickers, E. Gerretsen and McKee.

The third quarter ended with Antioch still leading 25-15.

In the fourth quarter, Barnstable and Fields continued their scoring with one basket apiece while Buchta contributed one gratis shot and Jones two free shots. T. Brett, substituting for Buchta, also bagged one bucket while Grant sent one basket and one free throw through the hoops. The Antioch heavyweight reserves took over near the end of the game to hold the Bulldogs' scoring down. The final period ended with Antioch again triumphing over their arch-rivals, 32-22.

Dale Barnstable and Leo Buchta once again paced the Sequoits with 19 and 9 points respectively.

Vickers led his Grant team with 10 points.

An ironic incident occurred as both Antioch squads scored 13 field goals on Friday, the 13th.

The final period ended 35-13 in Antioch's favor to continue their winning streak to three games over McHenry, Wauconda, and Grant.

Flooring Installed in Day

It is now possible to get a factory-finished oak flooring which is installed in one day completely finished by the usual sanding and finishing operations. It is a longer-lasting finish that is hard to mar and the cost is approximately the same as that of ordinary hardwood flooring.

The strips are a full inch wider than usual flooring and that, plus the gracefully beveled ends and edges, give a streamlined effect that is distinctive. This flooring is available in two grades.

Nothing Important

One of the most important advances ever made in the science of computation was the Hindu invention of the zero symbol to represent nothing.

The Lake Villa fire department was called out early last Thursday morning to help battle flames that destroyed the home of Adam Adam, proprietor of Adam and Eve's tavern on east Grand Avenue, Fox Lake. The fire was believed to have been in progress for some time before it was reported by two boys, Ralph Klein and Bud Rosing, who saw the blaze as they were passing on Grand Avenue and turned in the alarm. Loss was estimated at $8,000, believed to have been at least partly covered by insurance. The building was formerly owned by Al Borchardt.

Garden Worms That Talk

Earthworms actually communicate with each other by faint sounds emitted by their mouths, according to a German scientist. This is reported in an article about worms in the magazine "You're Wrong About That." The worm voices, asserts the article, "are used in emitting faint sounds, rarely in solo number but generally in series marked by a definite and changing rhythm. So apparent is this rhythm that it leads to the conclusion that these sounds are broadcast with the object of communication. The sounds resemble the clicking and ticking of a mass of infinitesimal clocks and can be heard quite clearly."

Packaging U. S. Products

Nearly half a billion dollars worth of paper and paperboard boxes and containers are required to package U. S. products, the census discloses.
